Responsibilities and Expectations of Counselors

If I am selected to be a counselor for History camp, I will be expected to:

1. Attend a counselor training workshop prior to camp.
2. Serve as an example and leader for all campers.
3. Create an inclusive and enjoyable experience for campers, presenters, and staff.
4. Be enthusiastic, happy, and enjoyable around the campers and adults.
5. Stay in control of my assigned group and stay with them.
6. Be quiet when appropriate and help keep campers quiet.
7. Help staff and other adults where needed.
8. See that all trash is put in trash cans.
9. Help with activities such as signing campers in and out, lunchtime, and end-of-the-day clean up.
10. Keep campers interested in the activities.
11. Report any misbehaviors, accidents, or illnesses to an adult staff person.
12. Encourage use of manners.
13. Set a good example by not using profanity.
14. Teach campers to respect one another.
15. Discourage rough play including running, screaming, and climbing on things when outside.
16. No piggy-back rides, rough housing, or lap sitting. Counselors should never be alone with a camper.
17. Not to use your cellphone during the hours of camp.
18. Be flexible -- plans do change.
19. Follow direction from the camp director and other camp leadership.
20. Work cooperatively with your fellow counselors.
21. Be Kind.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to abide by the above responsibilities and expectations if selected as a counselor.
